Bescon Magical Stone Dice Series

These stone dice are produced with our best imagination of metaphysical powers. Like a mysterious stone that can increase your defense – with their energies, magical or psychic powers, their ritual or healing uses.

They capture the imaginations as symbols, and as brilliant treasures cloaked in stories and myths. We've deposited into our purest fantasies and metaphors, and for this reason alone, they can be called magical stone.

BESCON 10MM Mini Solid Metal Dice Set More effects are coming...

These Mini 10mm metal dice are beautiful and small, perfect for any collection. The dice sets come in cool old nickel finish, their small size is really appealing. They are small and lighter when comparing with full-sized metal dice. In practice these mini dice make a very easy set of dice to carry with you anywhere. You can roll them on tables without a dice tray without being concerned about damaging the table or being too obnoxiously loud.

They are solid metal dice, die cast in zinc alloy and electroplated to get an extremely durable finish. These dice will stand the test of time. They also make a wonderful gift for that gamer in your life, whether they're a player or game master.
