These Vampire Dice are the perfect accent to any World of Darkness Game. These d10's have a rose in place of the number 10.

These Specialty Dice are used in special situations in many of today's games. Each side of each die has a special symbol representing a faction of which ever die is used. The meaning of each symbol is up to the Game Master. A great product line!

Megatubes are the perfect starter set for most role-playing games. This 10-die tube provides one of every die type plus 3 extra 6-sided dice & 1 extra 10-sided die (different color to represent percentile). If you are a new store or an older store that is seeing a rebirth for role-playing, a display of megatubes is a great buy. The displays are listed on page 17 of this catalog.
